Dachshund Turned Celebrity!

Crusoe, a spunky little dachshund featured on his dad's blog became a sensation that led him to become a canine celebrity. His videos have drawn a billion views and he has over 300,000 followers. It all started when his dad posted photo shoots of Crusoe on the internet wearing homemade costumes made by Crusoe's mom. Eventually, Crusoe's dad adopted the longer form videos, adding in comical voiceover to the dogs to be able to tell more of a story. It is at this point that Crusoe's YouTube channel exploded and continues to grow and maintain viewers as new episodes are released every few weeks. His dad, Ryan Beauchesne, says Crusoe's personality has led him to becoming an internet-famous dog, "He is a little bit of a diva and a little bit sassy." Beauchesne thinks Crusoe's appeal is that he believes the world revolves around him and many pet-parents find the humor in this because they can identify this characteristic in their own dogs. Crusoe is not just internet-famous, he is also the winner of the 2018 People's Choice Award for Animal Star, as well as a New York Times Bestselling author. Crusoe and his dad have met hundreds of fans while on his book tour, and he is the recipient of a closet full of homemade costumes and gifts. "They say you should do what you love for a living, and mine is to spend time with my dog," said Beauchesne. "I'm so appreciative of that every day. Sometimes I look at it and think, is this just silly what we're doing making silly little dog videos. But when it does make a difference to somebody's life or brings them that daily joy that they really appreciate, I feel like we're making some little difference to the world."

Lincoln lives in Rhode Island and is adored by his loving family every day.
